Biography Meet the dynamic duo that's redefining Cape Town's entertainment scene: Acoustic Element. Cousins Callen Petersen (violin virtuoso) and Jody Abel (master of the acoustic guitar) have seamlessly blended their musical talents to create something extraordinary.

The Birth of a Unique Combo Starting as a violin and guitar duo, Acoustic Element initially played at weddings and corporate functions as a weekend hobby. But their passion and skill quickly propelled them into the limelight, making them one of Cape Town's most contemporary acts.

Versatility and Adaptability Acoustic Element's repertoire knows no bounds. From classical gems like Mendelssohn's "Wedding March No. 2" and Bach's "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" to rock anthems like Bon Jovi's "Living on a Prayer" and Coldplay's "Viva La Vida," they effortlessly traverse genres. And that's not all—prepare for a nostalgic journey with their renditions of Frank Sinatra's timeless classics ("Fly Me to the Moon" and "Sway") before they kick it up a notch with chart-topping hits like Lorde's "Royals" and Avicii's "Wake Me Up."

From Intimate Gatherings to High-Energy Clubs Acoustic Element has graced a diverse range of events, from elegant weddings to bustling markets and exclusive clubs. Their secret? A unique charisma and flair that ensures guests revel in unforgettable entertainment. When you book Acoustic Element, you're not just getting music; you're adding that special 'Something Extra' to your event. So whether it's a romantic soirée or a lively celebration, let Acoustic Element take you on a melodic journey that transcends boundaries.
